INSIDE HOTELS

HIP HOTELS

In the heart of the bustling cityscape, these five fashionable hotels redefine luxury with a perfect fusion of fun style and timeless elegance. With style, innovation and a commitment to providing a unique stay, these places are trendsetting destinations for the modern traveler seeking an unforgettable, culturally infused experience.

THE JOSEPH

Nashville, TN

The Joseph is a perfect Nashville escape for those looking for a dose of refined Southern hospitality. The chic hotel, named Travel and Leisure's Readers Choice for Best Nashville Hotel, is a stunning spectacle from the moment you walk into its Italian marble lobby. Imagine sipping cocktails at the rooftop bar, Denim, with panoramic views of downtown, or indulging in Italian cuisine by Michelin-starred chef Tony Mantuano at Yolán. And for a little pampering? Head to Rose, The Joseph's luxury spa, where you can get glammed up before hitting the town. The rooms are plush, complete with serene color palettes and state-of-the-art amenities. It's the perfect backdrop for a memorable vacation and a must-visit for anyone looking to experience Nashville in style.

HOTEL HUGO

New York City, NY

Tucked between bustling SoHo and the scenic Hudson River in the emerging Hudson Square neighborhood, Hotel Hugo is as cool as the area code it inhabits. The mix of modern luxuries and pared-down industrial influences brings a uniquely New York feel to the hotel. Get focused with the meeting room and the fitness center or let loose at the rooftop watering hole, Bar Hugo. With one of the best views in the city thanks to floor-to-ceiling windows, you can wave at Lady Liberty as you sip on a handcrafted cocktail at the twentieth-story bar. Felix Roasting Company on-site is the perfect place to grab a coffee or enjoy a weekend brunch before venturing out to explore the city.
