Hotels That Make You Feel Like a Star

The Omni Homestead Resort

Hotsprings, VA

At this Virginia resort, every day holds something special. The Omni Homestead Resort has long been renowned for its beautiful setting, famous hot spring pools, and impeccable service, and with exciting events year-round, there's never a bad time to visit. If you like things a little old-school, you'll love Vintage Weekend. Enjoy formal afternoon tea, etiquette lessons, ballroom dancing, and croquet on the lawn during this one-of-a-kind weekend from August 23rd to 25th. When the weather cools in October, celebrate at Fall Fest

Weekend with hikes through autumn foliage, wagon rides, family crafts, and much more. Later in the month, catch The Homestead Golf & Sporting Clays Classic, a tournament consisting of a day of shooting clays followed by 18 holes of golf. In November, toast to the third anniversary of The Virginia Wine Experience at The Omni Homestead Resort with tastings, master classes, and a gala, or get into the holiday spirit by celebrating the arrival of the resort's 20-foot Christmas tree. At a place this special, no matter when you visit, you're sure to create unforgettable memories.

XV Beacon

Boston, MA

A beacon of luxury and taste in Boston's illustrious Beacon Hill neighborhood, this hotel nods to the city's deep historic roots while offering guests an experience that feels distinctly fresh and modern. The 63-room boutique hotel, housed in a beautiful Beaux-Arts building, exudes elegance, from Les Chef d'Or concierges and plush rooms to onsite fine dining restaurant Mooo....

Helmed by the mastermind behind Boston haute cuisine mainstays like Mistral and Sorellina, Jami Mammano, this aptly named steakhouse is as versatile and beloved as its owner. Here, you can expect only the best cuts, from Japanese A5 Wagyu to all-American Greater Omaha prime beef, served alongside delectable additions like Ossetra caviar and Maine lobster for those looking to add some surf to their turf. Mooo....'s menu goes beyond just dinner though, with its decadent breakfast pancakes and lunch standouts like the salmon brochette salad tempting diners to return time and again.

Take Me There

Hotel Hugo

New York, NY

Steps away from the bustling streets of SoHo in the trendy Hudson Square neighborhood, Hotel Hugo is a boutique hotel full of the vibrant character and urban charm New York is known for. Modern guest rooms feature spacious work desks, high-shine mahogany accents, and flat-screen TVs. While the neighborhood is full of charming bars and restaurants, some of the best spots are right in the hotel. Stop by Bar Hugo for a hand-crafted drink with dramatic views of the Hudson River and the Statue of Liberty thanks to floor-to-ceiling windows. Keep the party going at the open-air Azul on the Rooftop. With a Cuban cantina vibe, killer guac, and panoramic views of Lower Manhattan, this spot is sure to satisfy. After a long night, pay a visit to Felix Roasting Co. for coffee and weekend brunch, or opt for farm-to-table apps and signature cocktails at the daily happy hour. Pro tip: Book your stay in advance and save up to 10% on your stay.

Take Me There

Millennium Premier

New York, NY

It can be a challenge to find a hotel in Times Square that offers an escape from the chaos characteristic of New York City. Enter: Millennium Premier New York Times Square, an affordable family-friendly lifestyle retreat just steps from the bright lights of Broadway. Spend your days shopping on nearby 5th Avenue, or take in the sunshine at Bryant Park, each only a short walk away. With only four to seven rooms on each floor for added privacy, you can stay tapped into the city through floor-to-ceiling windows without feeling overcrowded.
