Hotel Spotlight: The Big Apple

Wythe Hotel

The Vibe: The original Brooklyn boutique

The Location: Brooklyn

Luxury Accommodations:

Built in 1901, this historic Brooklyn factory turned boutique hotel has an old-school New York feel with all the best modern amenities—like heated concrete floors! The 69 industrial-chic rooms feature 13-foot high ceilings, red brick walls, and oversized windows with views of the Manhattan Skyline and East River.

Instaworthy Activities:

Located on the Williamsburg Waterfront, Wythe Hotel is in the artistic and culinary hub of Brooklyn. Start your vacay with a Martini Blonde and a dozen oysters at the on-site Bar Blondeau. Once you're feeling warm and fuzzy, stroll on over to the Brooklyn Museum to appreciate the best of New York's creativity and a stunning botanical garden. End the night at the newest improv club, The Second City. No matter where you visit, a melting pot of culture is awaiting you at every corner.

Hotel Hugo

The Vibe: Classic meets contemporary

The Location: Manhattan

Luxury Accommodations:

Tucked between SoHo and the Hudson River, Hotel Hugo epitomizes contemporary luxury in New York City. Designed by world-renowned architect Marcello Pozzi, all 122 rooms seamlessly blend high-end sophistication with a laid-back feel. The mid-century modern furnishings, walnut headboards, and custom mahogany accents invite you to channel your inner Holly Golightly during your time in NYC.

Instaworthy Activities:

Conquer your bucket list at Hotel Hugo, located in the heart of art and fashion in New York. Read your book club novel in Washington Square Park, grab a pint at the oldest working bar in all of New York City (The Ear Inn), or embrace the arts at one of the countless NYC museums. Plus, walk less than a mile for a night of laughs at the Comedy Cellar, where icons like Jerry Seinfeld and Amy Schumer perform.
