Hotels That Turn Travel Into an Artform

The Pridwin Hotel & Cottages Shelter Island, NY

Nestled on the Hamptons-adjacent hideaway of Shelter Island, The Pridwin Hotel & Cottages is the perfect place for a quaint beach getaway. Stay in one of the hotel's 33 well-appointed guest rooms or opt for more privacy in one of the 16 standalone cottages. Each cottage is delightfully cozy, featuring kitchenettes, living areas, gas fireplaces for chilly nights, and private decks for peaceful mornings, while guest rooms offer elevated comforts like Nespresso machines, signature linens, and Beach Plum Farm bath amenities. Spend a leisurely day lounging poolside or sunning on a beach chair before unwinding with a treatment at The Pridwin Spa. Fill your days with activity, from high-tempo fun on the tennis-slash-pickleball court to leisurely laps around the property on bike rentals. If rainy days loom, no worries—the onsite fitness center is perfect for getting those steps in, and two cozy game rooms ensure hours of indoor fun. Indulge in relaxation with the Pridwin Spa Retreat, featuring deluxe accommodations, a $250 spa credit, and 20% off OSEA® Malibu products.

Virgin Hotels Chicago

Chicago, IL

A hip hotel housed in a historic Windy City landmark, Virgin Hotels Chicago has flash and style in spades, and backs it up with superb onsite amenities. Chambers, or rooms, are designed to fit your needs, with a privacy partition to create distinct living, dressing and sleeping areas. Each room features a bright red SMEG mini fridge stocked with street-priced snacks and drinks, Italian-designed work desks that swivel, and Virgin Hotels' patented ultra-plush beds. A prime location in Chicago's downtown Loop offers plenty to explore just steps from the front door, but with some of the city's hottest spots right inside, you may never need to leave. The hotel boasts stunning views of Chicago's skyline (yes, even from the 25th-floor gym) but the best place to take it in is at Cerise, the buzzy rooftop bar. Grab dinner at Miss Ricky's, a casual dining spot serving classic American comfort food, before heading back up to Cerise for DJ sets and dancing. Had a late night out? Order room service from Miss Ricky's, or enjoy a slow morning with coffee and breakfast at Two Zero Three, the hotel's newsstand-inspired café on the ground floor.

Inn by the Sea

Cape Elizabeth, ME

Tucked neatly between Seal Cove and Great Pond, Inn by the Sea is a quaint coastal getaway just minutes from trendy Portland. As a member of Beyond Green, this hotel is dedicated to sustainable practices that protect its beautiful surroundings. The onsite spa is LEED Certified, the fitness facility uses recycled rubber floors, and 100% of the electricity is clean and renewable—even the outdoor pool is heated by solar power. Beach and Cove Suites offer luxurious ocean-view patios, gas fireplaces, and full kitchens, while Main Inn rooms are perfect for two, featuring king-size beds, marble bathrooms, and ample space. Delight in authentic New England flavors at Sea Glass, the Inn's restaurant, which works with local suppliers to deliver dishes made with responsibly harvested seafood caught fresh from the Gulf of Maine. After dinner, head outside and enjoy the night cozied up near a fire pit for nightly s'mores.

West House Hotel New York

New York, NY

WestHouse New York is a luxurious boutique hotel located in a glam 1927 building near Carnegie Hall. Designed by Jeffrey Beers International, the hotel features a cozy lobby adorned with sparkling chandeliers, marble columns, wooden herringbone floors, and a small front desk showcasing antique keys. The hotel's 172 guest rooms are dove-gray and feature classic modern furniture and large windows offering stunning views of the Manhattan skyline. The Terrace, located on the 23rd floor, is one of NYC's most coveted outdoor spaces, with classic views of iconic skyscrapers and the Hudson River. Guests can enjoy daily breakfast and evening F&B experiences with tapas and complimentary beer, wine, champagne, and desserts. Additional amenities include a boardroom, free audio workouts, and pet-friendly accommodations.
