Check In Somewhere That Feels Like a VIP Escape

The Ameswell Hotel Mountain View, CA

Designed for the modern traveler, The Ameswell Hotel seamlessly blends innovation, sustainability, and boutique hospitality for a stay that's as refined as it is restorative. Every detail is carefully considered, from carbon-neutral operations to a thoughtfully curated art collection, ensuring an all-around experience that feels effortlessly elevated. Guest rooms are bright and airy, with floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the space with natural light—while expertly soundproofed walls keep outside noise at bay. Plush Matouk linens, soft robes, and refillable Juice Beauty bath products add luxury, while in-room Steeped coffee provides a rich, locally sourced start to the day. Guests can indulge in personalized treatments at the Urban Wellness Spa or maintain their routine in the expansive 24-hour fitness center, featuring Lululemon Mirrors and Peloton bikes. A year-round heated saltwater pool invites you to take a dip or lounge poolside with a drink from the retrofitted Airstream wine bar. Onsite dining celebrates California's best flavors, emphasizing locally sourced ingredients and sustainable practices across its sleek, stylish culinary outlets.

Hotel Esencia

Quintana Roo, Mexico

Tucked away on the pristine shores of Xpu Ha, one of the few undeveloped beaches on the Riviera Maya, Hotel Esencia is a luxurious hidden gem that exemplifies Mexico's vibrant culture. Once the private home of an Italian duchess, the super-cool boutique hotel retains much of its original charm with 42 suites and villas sprinkled with art and antiques, exuding a sophisticated, organic aesthetic. With two gourmet restaurants offering organic farm-to-table cuisine, a Mayan-inspired spa overlooking the estate's cenote, and amenities like private balconies, hammocks, and lushly bordered pools, Hotel Esencia provides an elegant sanctuary that's worth every penny.

Hotel Hugo NY

New York, NY

Tucked between bustling SoHo and the scenic Hudson River in the emerging Hudson Square neighborhood, Hotel Hugo is as cool as the area code it inhabits. The mix of modern luxuries and pared-down industrial influences brings a uniquely New York feel to the hotel. Get focused with the meeting room and the fitness center or let loose at the rooftop watering hole, Bar Hugo. With one of the best views in the city thanks to floor-to-ceiling windows, you can wave at Lady Liberty as you sip on a handcrafted cocktail at the twentieth-story bar. Felix Roasting Company on-site is the perfect place to grab a coffee or enjoy a weekend brunch before venturing out to explore the city.

The Westin Jackson

Jackson, MS

Dive into the City of Soul, otherwise known as Jackson, Mississippi, and explore its dynamic history, culture, and music scene from The Westin Jackson.

Located in the heart of true Southern hospitality, this Mississippi hotel offers easy access to must-sees like the Mississippi Museum of Art, Jackson's historic music and arts theater, the Planetarium, and Thalia Mara Hall. Plus, if you're here on business, the hotel is only a block from the expansive Jackson Convention Complex. Follow the Roman tradition and stroll to the Coliseum;

Mississippi's very own is perched 2,900 feet above the extinct Jackson Volcano. With seats for basketball games and room to expand for concerts and shows, it's the perfect venue for a good time. The Westin Jackson is the ideal base for city exploration but has plenty to offer onsite as well with stylish rooms and top-notch amenities like a modern fitness center and an indoor heated saltwater pool. Unwind at Soul Spa, a peaceful retreat from the city's hustle.

Fuel up and savor Southern cuisine at Estelle Southern Table, a contemporary spot celebrating bold flavors and traditions.

Château Grande Hotel

East Brunswick, NJ

This hotel is a serene retreat to the French countryside tucked away in the heart of the tri-state area in East Brunswick. Set on 15 acres of land and dotted with formal gardens, checking into this 108-room hotel truly feels like taking a step into the Belle Epoque. Rooms are sleek and modern with luxe touches like gold accents, oversized windows, and crown molding. Deepen your relaxation with services from the Bliss Salon & Spa, which offers in-room massages and facials as well as beauty treatments like hair, makeup, and nails. Enjoy your time off with a walk around the gardens or spend time lounging on the patio reading under a Tucci umbrella. For those whose momentum never stops, even on vacation, the fully-equipped fitness center has everything you need to stay active. Refuel at Le Petit Cafe, which serves Starbucks coffee and fresh pastries, or visit the onsite restaurant Orchard Park, helmed by James Beard award-winning chef, David Burke, for fine dining in a refined yet relaxed setting.
